Shaping Governance Newsletter: 8th January 2024

Happy New Year!

We hope you had a great Christmas and feel refreshed for the Spring Term ahead.

2024, sees the 20th Anniversary of the Children Act 2004. The majority of the work that we undertake at Shaping Governance relates in some way to the Children Act. So, this year, we thought we would use our connections and influence to showcase the changes that the act has made, not just from the insight from our work, but that of a series of special guests.

Hear also from Su Turner, our CEO on her reflections of 2023, our journey and what's new for 2024.

Warmest regards,

The Shaping Governance Team

Reflecting on 2023 and planning for 2024

"Shaping Governance" is more than a company name; it captures the very essence of our mission. Since 2017, Shaping Governance has improved the landscape of governance and the support provided to the public sector governors in our schools, councils and charities.

During the last 12 months, Shaping Governance has again supported 100s of schools and councils to ensure that their governance is adding value to outcomes for children and communities. I can't remember how many times this year I have witnessed the "lightbulb moment" in participants during our support, and I never tire of seeing the positive impact that our support gives.

This year, Shaping Governance has... click to access the blog

We're recruiting - come and join us

2023 has seen an increase in interest in our clerking services, and therefore we are always looking for new members to join our team.

If you fancy a career change in the New Year, know someone who does or would like to learn more about what being a clerk entails, get in touch or click here for more information. Working with school governors is an incredibly rewarding role, and there's definitely a need for more clerks

Come and join our lovely team!

Newsletters in 2024

This year will see us change the way that we report our news, hints and tips to you. In line with our annual focus on 20 years since the Children Act received Royal Ascent, we will be sending two communications per month:

- One specific to the Children Act - where you will, each month, hear from our notable special guests from across, education, social care, and heath;
- One to share our news, hints, tips and stories as well as other things we find interesting.

If you have not already done so, register for our newsletter by using this link to make sure you are kept in the loop.

Register here for our newsletters

